Dear Russ,

Your note about calling Mildred Stansfield specifies that I place the call between five and six. This is why I have not. This time of the year it isx impossible because that it a) when I get to Lil's office before it gets dark so she will not then be alone until her relief comes, and b) prior to the time we get home.

The only alternative I see is for Ms Stansfield to call me, pretty much at her convenience.

Generally this time of the year I'm the only one home daytimes except weekends.

Generally I'm not away nights.

I did send her the book immediately.

Hurriedly,
